and to the State of Alaska's home page, to BASIS (see below), and to Infobases (Searchable Text--see below).

BASIS (Bill Action & Status Inquiry System)-- <http://www.legis.state.ak.us/basis/start.asp> --for the current Legislature (with links to the 18th through 24th Legislatures) is continuously updated and offers

- measures (with line numbers)
- current status
- bill histories
- daily calendars
- daily floor journals
- sponsor summaries
- subject summaries
- committee members
- committee schedules
- committee minutes
- measures in committee
- statute correlations

For the text of the bill, select a measure's number (e.g., HB 1), click on Display Bill Root, click on Full Text, then click on the PDF link for the fully formatted version of the bill (requires Acrobat Reader, available free from <http://www.adobe.com>).

INFOBASES (Searchable Text)--<http://www.legis.state.ak.us/folhome.htm>

Some of these infobases are updated often--measures (without line numbers), journals, and are updated every evening, a one-day delay; committee minutes often have a long lag time:

- current legislation
- daily journals
- committee minutes

Other infobases are updated periodically or never:

- previous years' legislation
- previous years' committee minutes
- previous years' journals
- the Alaska Administrative Code (AAC)
- the Alaska Statutes (AS) (without annotations)
- the Administrative Journal
- Legislative Research requests
- the Legislative Library catalog
- the State Constitution
- the Uniform Rules
- State Executive Orders

These infobases are searchable by word or number. Query/search formats are described in Help (the FOLIO INFOBASE button).

Printing caution: You'll likely get more text printing out than you ask for. The best bet is to copy & paste into your own document first.
