Teleconferencing and Public Hearing Protocol

Public hearing teleconferences are electronic extensions of the committee process, and are usually limited to a specific subject or bill. The chair may request that the testimony be limited to a certain length of time, and will decide the order of participation in the teleconference. Before beginning your testimony, state your name and who you represent, if applicable. Remember to identify yourself each time you speak. Indicate to the chair when you have concluded your testimony. Hearing protocol is selected by the committee chairperson. Teleconference protocol during formal committee meetings shall be designed to serve the agenda of the committee and accommodate the conventions of a legislative hearing.

Facilitating Communication Between You & Your Legislators:

“The LIO is an invaluable resource for staying in contact with constituents. Despite the size of the state, the services they provide make it easy for Alaskans to be involved in government.”

-Sen. John Coghill

“Like most Legislators, I do the best job for my constituents when they let me know what’s on their minds. The LIOs are a vital link between me and the people I was elected to serve.”

-Rep. Eric Feige

“The Legislative Information Offices provide an important link for the citizens of Alaska to interface with their elected representatives. Citizen input is critical to the legislative process. Recent advancements in technology have greatly improved opportunities for Alaskans to be heard, and LIO staff work hard to insure the very best delivery of those services.”

-Rep. Cathy Muñoz
