SEPTEMBER 2019

Approved August 14, 2019 Advisory Opinion 19-03

The Select Committee on Legislative Ethics adopted Advisory Opinion 19-03 at the August 14, 2019 committee meeting. Full text of the Advisory Opinion can also be found at <http://www.legis.state.ak.us/search/ethics/>.

Question Presented

Does the Legislative Ethics Act (the Act) permit a legislator to include, in the legislator's regularly scheduled legislative newsletter, information about a candidate forum?¹

You are a legislator and therefore covered by the Legislative Ethics Act (the Act). You have requested an advisory opinion concerning facts and circumstances that you have related.

Statement of Facts

In answering this question the committee relies on the facts you provided with your request. Those facts are as follows:

1. The forum is hosted by a non-partisan organization.
2. The legislator publishing the newsletter (A) is not a featured candidate at the candidate forum; (B) is not using the newsletter to advocate for a particular candidate, pack attendance² at the forum, or influence the outcome of the election in which the featured candidate is running; and (C) desires to include information about the forum in the newsletter in order to fulfill what the legislator perceives is an obligation to inform constituents of civic matters.

Discussion

The facts provided describe a legislator not using a newsletter to pack attendance at a forum. From this, we understand your question to be one relating to a future candidate forum. Therefore, it is likely that, at a minimum, the public would perceive the information published in the legislative newsletter as informing constituents about an opportunity to attend an upcoming candidate forum. It is conceivable that the public could also perceive the forum or the presentation of information in the newsletter as partisan political activity, depending on how the information is presented and what additional information is provided.

¹ For purposes of this opinion, we understand "candidate forum" to mean an event at which one or more candidates for election to political office appear, make a presentation, and perhaps field questions, although not necessarily in a debate format.

² For purposes of this opinion, we understand "pack attendance" to mean an effort to encourage attendance at the event by certain persons – perhaps based on their real or perceived affiliations, beliefs, and behaviors – for a partisan political purpose and not merely to fill available seats.

AS 24.60.030(a) provides, in part, that a legislator or legislative employee may not

(2) use public funds, facilities, equipment, services, or another government asset or resource for a nonlegislative purpose, for involvement in or support of or opposition to partisan political activity, or for the private benefit of the legislator, legislative employee, or another person; this paragraph does not prohibit

(J) a legislator from sending any communication in the form of a newsletter to the legislator's constituents, except a communication expressly advocating the election or defeat of a candidate or a newsletter or material in a newsletter that is clearly only for the private benefit of a legislator or a legislative employee;

(Emphasis added). The Act does not define "partisan" or "non-partisan," or "partisan political activity," but we do not need to define those terms in order to answer the question posed. So long as the information published does not expressly advocate for the election or defeat of a candidate, and is not clearly only for the private benefit of a legislator or legislative employee, the exception in (a)(2)(J) would permit a legislator to include the information in a legislative newsletter to the legislator's constituents, even if doing so amounts to partisan political activity, or the forum itself is a partisan political activity.³

However, other limitations in the Act may apply. Under AS 24.60.030(a)(5), a legislator or legislative employee may not use or authorize the use of state funds, facilities, equipment, services, or another government asset or resource for the purpose of political fund raising or campaigning. Therefore, even if allowable under (a)(2)(J), publication of the information in the newsletter would be prohibited if the forum is a political fund raising or campaigning event. Also, legislators and legislative employees are barred, under AS 24.60.031, from soliciting contributions or promises or pledges to contribute to a political campaign during a 90 day period immediately before an election, except in certain limited circumstances, on a day when a house of the legislature is in session.⁴ Finally, as we advised in AO 13-03 and AO 15-03, a legislator is permitted by AS 24.60.030(a)(2)(J), to use legislative assets and resources to send legislative newsletters, but only to constituents.

Conclusion

For the reasons stated above and our understanding of the facts provided, the committee finds that the Legislative Ethics Act (the Act) permits a legislator to include, in the legislator's regularly scheduled legislative newsletter to the legislator's constituents, information about a candidate forum, so long as

1. the information published (A) does not expressly advocate for the election or defeat of a candidate; and (B) is not clearly only for the private benefit of a legislator or legislative employee;⁵ and
2. the candidate forum or the information published about the forum in the newsletter does not constitute (A) political fund raising or campaigning barred by AS 24.60.030(a)(5); or (B) a solicitation barred by AS 24.60.031.

Compliance with the Act is the individual responsibility of each person to whom it applies.⁶ In determining whether future conduct like that described in the facts provided violates the Act, the committee will consider the applicable facts in each instance. An appearance of ethical impropriety would be a factor the committee would consider.⁷
