

COMPLAINT

Alleging a Violation of the Alaska Legislative Ethics Act – AS 24.60

IMPORTANT CONFIDENTIALITY INFORMATION under AS 24.60.170(l):

The person filing a complaint shall keep confidential both the fact that a complaint has been filed and the contents of the complaint. If the committee finds that a complainant violated any confidentiality provision under AS 24.60.170, the committee shall immediately dismiss the complaint.

The subject of a complaint under AS 24.60.170 may waive confidentiality at any point in the proceedings or at the close of the proceedings. If the subject of the complaint chooses to waive confidentiality, the complainant’s identity is subject to public knowledge.

The committee must return a complaint without action during a campaign period if a complaint is filed against a legislator or legislative employee who is a candidate for state office unless the subject of the complaint waives suspension. A campaign period begins on the later of 45 days before a primary election or the day on which the individual files as a candidate for state office and ends at the close of election day for general or special elections or on the day the candidate withdraws from the elections, whichever is earlier. The complaint may be re-filed after the closure of the campaign period. AS 24.60.170(o)

Complaints may only list one subject. Provide as much information as possible, including details of the violation and evidence. Contact the committee office at (907) 269-0150 if you have questions. The complaint must be notarized, and then mailed, emailed, or hand-delivered to the Ethics Committee office.
